

A. The Student Who Bullies

A. The Student Who Bullies:

(I want to bully, start the bullying, and take a leadership role. I can usually get my friends to go along with whatever I say.)

"I think (name of bullied student) is so stupid!

I was making fun of (his/her) clothes—

I said something like: "Hey, you loser!

Where'd you get those "cool" clothes? The Loser Store?"

B. Followers

B. The Followers:

(I like the bullying and take part in it. I usually don't start it, but will if my friends encourage me.)

"Well, (name of bullied student) ISN'T very cool.

I agree with (the person who bullies.)

After things got started, I probably said,
"Yeah, what's your problem, Geek?"

C. Supporters

C. Supporters/(Passive Bullies):

(I support the bullying: I usually laugh and point it out to others, but I don't join in.)

"Oh, I really like (names of the people doing and supporting the bullying.)

They are soooo cool.

I don't usually say anything when they pick on people, but I'm laughing and letting others know what's going on so they can get a laugh, too."

D. Passive Supporters

D. Passive Supporters/(Possible Bullies):

(I like the bullying but don't show outward signs of support.)

"Well, I think it's funny, too.

I try to seem innocent enough...I really don't want to get into trouble.

I may let the guys know later what happened.
Yeah,(name of bullied student) is kinda goofy....

I mean...just look at (him/her!)"

E. Disengaged Onlookers

E. Disengaged Onlookers:

(I don't get involved in the bullying, and try to remove myself...and I don't help the bullied student.)

"Hey, this is none of my business.

I try not to even notice, and when I do, I pretend not to see it.

The less attention I get from those people, the better."

F. Possible Defenders

F. Possible Defenders:

(I don't like the bullying and think I should help the bullied student, but I don't do anything.)

"This is making me sick.

Those kids have NO right to do those things.

That poor kid (being bullied) did nothing to deserve that.

But....I really can't say anything. I don't want to be the next person to be bullied. Besides, what could I do anyway?"

G. Defenders

G. Defenders:

(I don't like the bullying and try to help the bullied student.)

"I can't take it any more.

I just have to do something.

But what should I do?

Hmmm, maybe talk to (him/her) later and say I was sorry it happened.

I might even go over there right now..."

H. The Student Who is Bullied

H. Student Who is Bullied:

(I am the student who is being bullied.)

"Oh, no...here they come again.

What are they going to say NOW?

I wish I could just disappear.

This is just too hard for me.....man, do I hate school."
